You have completed your preliminary review of your book manuscript. Now what? It is time to prepare your file. Convert your file to the desired format using any free or paid online service or software. The most popular file type is .epub or .mobi. This is trial and error and you may have to troubleshoot for the file to appear just as you wish. I have successfully converted my book manuscript file to the appropriate format Yes or No _____.

Now you must choose which ebook platforms you wish to publish in. I have researched the available online book platforms for authors and I have decided to publish my book on:

Ebook platform no. 1: _____ on or by Date: _____

Ebook platform no. 2: _____ on or by Date: _____

Ebook platform no. 4: _____ on or by Date: _____

Ebook platform no. 5: _____ on or by Date: _____

Ebook platform no. 6: _____ on or by Date: _____

Ebook platform no. 7: _____ on or by Date: _____

Each ebook publishing platform requires that you create an account and profile. This profile will allow you to input your biography and relevant details about your book. I have drafted my author bio to include on my profile for each ebook publishing platform. Yes or No _____.

Decide whether you will participate in certain promotions. Some ebook publishing platforms require for you to limit you publication ebooks only with their online company. Do your research and know the value of what you have produced, consider balancing your pricing with economic and literary trends for realistic expectations. I have decided what price I would like to set for my ebook. $_____.
