

Clues

Across

2 Her cavalier servente who knows his charge will never reciprocate his affection

7 Servant of her fiancé

8 She becomes this after marrying Leandro

9 The ennobled, as a whole

11 She meets a French one of these in the town square

12 An aristocrat, a courtier, or a _____

15 Excessive overskirt, typical style of gown for the 18th century

18 It is a typical soiree during this season

20 To desire wrongfully, inordinately, or without due regard for the rights of others (Giorgio, e.g.)

21 The main character's name

23 Excuse me, Italian style

24 She gifted him this at their first encounter

25 The king's court may be considered one, of sorts

26 One of his middle names

Down

1 Her fiancé has this title

3 Typical 18th century transport

4 This fresco was a commissioned replica in this great house. It was known as 'The Personification of _____'

5 These vagrants conspired to do this with regards to the heroine's garb and accessories

6 The city-state where the story takes place

10 It is the season of which Ardor's Prestige takes place

13 The house from which the heroine hails

14 Seafaring vessel for locals

16 Far-reaching and false, these nefarious wrongdoers woefully spread these about the heroine

17 They wear these when celebrating this season

19 He gifted her this when they first met

20 Her young and devoted maidservant

22 Renown Italian painter: Giovanni _____ Canal